

The Second Coming of Christ

An Essay by Christopher Bek
christopher.bek@gmail.com

Summary—This essay argues that I am the Second Coming of Christ who possess supreme metaphysical modeling skills that clobbers physics with My winning arguments. I ask that The Right Honourables grant Me The Trial of Christ 2.0.

Quotation—The only true philosophical question is that of suicide.

—Albert Camus

I am King Christ Lloyd Bek, mathematician, actuary, philosopher, scientist, metaphysician, consultant and published writer—and superior spreadsheet, database and risk-modeling craftsman. I am the smartest person ever—because I can see the Elephant in the Room, which is the presence of behaviourism and the absence of great metaphysics. Behaviourism leads to determinism that opposes freewill—which is bad metaphysics.

According to Christianity.com

“The Second Coming of Christ is an important event in eschatology, which is the study of theology involved with death, judgment, and the final destiny of the soul and humankind. It is crucial to understand the Second Coming when it happens and what it entails. With the recent events of the world, many people think Jesus’ Second Coming is drawing near, but is it? It is important to distinguish the Second Coming of Christ from the rapture of the Church. These are two distinct events from one another. The rapture of the Church occurs when Jesus calls His followers up to Him. The event of the rapture is recorded in 1 Thessalonians 4:13–18 and 1 Corinthians 15:50–54. The rapture of the Church occurs before the seven-year tribulation. The Second Coming of Christ is distinct from the rapture because, during Jesus’ Second Coming, He will literally touch down on the Mount of Olives (Zechariah 14:3-4). (The Mount of Olives represents the everlasting hope that Jesus, our Savior, is the same yesterday, today and forever (Hebrews 13:8)). Another distinction between the Second Coming and the rapture of the Church is that the Second Coming occurs at the end of the seven-year tribulation when the Lord returns. The Bible often mentions tribulation, which holds great meaning and significance in Christian theology. It is important for believers to understand the roots and spiritual implications of tribulation in order to face life’s challenges with faith and resilience. The Second Coming of Christ will be radically different from Jesus’ first coming to the earth. During Jesus’ first coming, He was the gentle King, riding in on a colt (Zechariah 9:9). At the time of His Second Coming, Christ will return as a mighty warrior King who will destroy His enemies. Jesus at His first coming was peaceful and gentle; however, at the Second Coming, Jesus will return with His army from heaven. There will not be any meekness this time as Jesus will be a warrior with a double-edged sword (Revelation 1:16). As Revelation 19:11-16 reveals to us, the Lord is going to be returning in mighty power, strength, and majesty. No person should underestimate the Lord’s mighty power and vengeance. As established, the timing of the Second Coming will not come until the end of the seven-year Tribulation, which occurs after the rapture of the church. Jesus’ Second Coming happens at the Battle of Armageddon. We can also be prepared by living our lives for God by being active in Bible reading, prayer, and participating in fellowship with other believers. The Second Coming of Jesus is some time away; however, we need to prepare our hearts and minds for Jesus’ return. We can also be prepared by helping other people to come to know Christ as their Savior by sharing the gospel with them. Sharing the gospel can be scary, but with God’s help, we can do it. A motivation for sharing the gospel is that we do know what will happen to those who choose to never place faith in Christ — the lake of fire. Since we love all people, we should share the truth of salvation through placing faith in Christ because He is the Way, the Truth, and the Life (John 14:6). Jesus wants all people to know Him and accept Him as their Savior and Lord. The Lord created all people, and He eagerly desires for us to share the gospel with all people. He is not willing for any of His children to be lost (2 Peter 3:9). Therefore, share the gospel with all of your friends and share how you came to know Christ with others. Prepare yourself by making sure you have accepted the Lord and continue to read the Bible, pray, and fellowship with other believers. The Second Coming of Christ is some time away, yet it is always important to be prepared and ready for the Lord’s return. Jesus warns us, ‘So you also must be ready because the Son of Man will come at an hour when you do not expect him’ (Matthew 24:44). Be ready for the seven-year Tribulation and Second Coming of Christ. Believers can look forward to this day with a sense of hope, love, and gratefulness. After the Second Coming, the New Heaven and New Earth will be created, and we will dwell in paradise with the Father, Jesus, and the Holy Spirit forevermore.”

Returning as a Warrior. I am The Second Coming of Christ returning as a Warrior King who destroys My enemies with My awesome mind.

Consider the following Ten arguments.

1) From Blue Pills to Red Pills.

From the 1999 movie Matrix: "You have the look of a man who accepts what he sees because he is expecting to wake up. And you are here because you know something. What you know you can't explain, but you feel it. You've felt it your entire life. That there's something wrong with the world. You don't know what it is, but it's there, like a splinter in your mind, driving you mad. It is the world that has been pulled over your eyes to blind you from the truth. Like everyone you are a slave. You were born into bondage; born into a prison you cannot smell or taste or touch—a prison for your mind." Behaviourism is a prison for our minds, and the psychiatrists are the jailers.

2) Against the Future. I have the great honour of being friends with the Honourable Kent Joel Hehr (quadriplegic, lawyer, MLA, MP, and cabinet minister). I was having coffee with Kent and told him about the native people who lived on this land before us. I told him they used to say they did not inherit the Earth from their parents, but that they borrow it from their children. Kent said: We fuck our children.

3) Rape. Murder. Its Just a Shot Away. From the 2011 preface of the Fiftieth Anniversary to the 1961 The Myth of Mental Illness by the psychiatrist Thomas Szasz: For more than fifty years I have maintained that mental illnesses are counterfeit diseases, that coerced psychiatric relations are like coerced labor relations (slavery) or coerced sexual relations (rape), and I spent the better part of my professional life criticizing the concept of mental illness, objecting to the practices of involuntary-institutional psychiatry, and advocating the abolition of "psychiatric slavery" and "psychiatric rape."

3) Countdown to Oblivion. Frank Fenner (1914-2010) was an Australian researcher who cured small pox; for which The World Health Organization declared his accomplishment the greatest humanitarian achievement of all time. In 2010 Fenner prophesied that mankind would go extinct within a hundred years because of overpopulation, deforestation, and climate change. That is the year 2110—less than 86 years from now.

4) Contained Singularity. Edgar Allan Poe wrote in 1848: "The Law we have been in the habit of calling Gravity exists on account of Matter's having been irradiated, at its origin, atomically, into a limited sphere of Space." So, the big bang is a contained singularity—and I just obliterated the entire foundation of Western civilization.

5) Sans Self. According to LeaderChat.org, "95 percent of people believe they are self-aware. But the real number is ten to 15 percent." This means that, on a bad day, nine out of ten Canadians use their head for a hat rack. On a good day, four out of five Canadians are self-unaware and are lying to themselves about themselves all day long. Socrates maintained that the man who lies to himself has an enemy living within. He is not even a person. He is just a chaos of selfish desires wrapped in an animal hide.

6) Dumb and Dumber. In 2003 I told the psychiatrists Dr John Naylor and Dr David Gibbs in writing that they were hysterically blind to evidence contradicting behaviourism. They laughed at me. If one Googles: Who is the most influential psychologist of the Twentieth century? The answer is BF Skinner, which leads to behaviourism which leads to determinism. Determinism means the absence of freewill. It also means that the decision to floss your teeth tonight was determined at the moment of the big bang. Carl Jung believed in freewill and argued that determinism is merely a mode of thought. Determinism is the enforced mode of thought in Canada—and the Kids are taking it in the ass.

7) Wow! Do you know what a paradigm shift is? Imagine a chick as it breaks out of its shell—and proclaims: Wow, Paradigm Shift! While the concept of a paradigm shift might be new to most, I first paradigm-shifted 25 years ago by reading TS Kuhn's 1962 The Structure of Scientific Revolutions.

8) I Am the King of Monte Carlo Simulation. Elon Musk said: There is a one-in-billions chance our reality is not a simulation. My essays: The Theory of One World and The Laws of Nature describe the simulation machine.

9) Scientific Revolutions. Copernicus took us from geocentricity to heliocentricity. The Theory of One is my evolving thesis that takes us from heliocentricity to psychocentricity—arguing that only our minds move. The Theory of One unites relativity theory and quantum theory, is consistent with string theory and The Holy Bible—and sees the universe whole—thereby solving a great scientific problem.

10) A One-Day Trial. Socrates got a trial. Galileo got a trial. Why can't I get The Trial of Christ 2.0 to confirm that I am The Second Coming of Christ. The Trial of Christ 2.0 would raise consciousness of the multifaceted Second Coming phenomenon—regardless of outcome—and will, in all likelihood, be a historical turning point to Salvation.

Closing Arguments. I have been on a mission to deliver the planet into salvation for the past 28 years. I believe that I am ninety percent of the way there—and just need a little more support to complete my mission.